

CHILDHOOD HUNGER

ARE YOU INTERESTED IN HELPING TO MEET THE NUTRITIONAL NEEDS OF CHILDREN IN YOUR COMMUNITY?

CFBNJ is hosting a Summer Food Service Program Meeting
Friday, March 22, 2013
9:00AM — 11:00AM

THIS WORKSHOP IS OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

The New Jersey Department of Agriculture, Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) is launching a campaign to establish partnerships to:

- Increase recipient participation
- Expand the program through sponsorship and sites
- Promote the visibility of the SFSP
- Increase awareness of the number of eligible children who depend on meals from the national school lunch program during the school year, yet, go without these meals during the summer months.

The SFSP continues to be one of USDA's best resources for fighting hunger during summer vacation. Yet, it remains one of the least utilized programs. It is our responsibility to ensure that our children have adequate nutrition and are "student ready." This is a great opportunity to meet the nutritional needs of children in your community.
