"Night of 100,000 Meals for Kids 2019"

EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP-NJ

For more than 40 million Americans living with food insecurity, including 12 million children, hunger's effects on their minds, bodies, and communities are stronger than you think. Via The Atlantic and Feeding America

Each year, we serve tens of thousands of healthy meals to kids in Atlantic, Cape May, and Cumberland counties through our Summer Nutrition Program.

Development Officer Renate Taylor appeared on Lite Rock 96.9 to tell viewers about our work to ensure that no child goes hungry when school's out.

Just two days after Night of 100,000 Meals our operations team was hard at work for the NALC "National Association of Letter Carrier's" Food Drive! The Operation's team, along with our partners, the Air National Guards

Teamed up to pick up 86,000 lbs. of donated food on Saturday.

-Our volunteers worked diligently and efficiently to help in receiving and sorting the incoming donations. We have continued to pick up donations, and we are over our last year's total of 101,000. Currently, our total is over 105,000 and counting!

The Community FoodBank of New Jersey — Southern Branch host a cocktail reception Thursday, May 9, to benefit hungry children in Atlantic, Cape May, and Cumberland counties

Attendees will have the chance to see the full scope of FoodBank services and sample dishes created from typical FoodBank ingredients.

All Participating restaurants and chefs Assaggio!, Steve & Cookies By the Bay, Cardinal Bistro, Linwood Country Club, Chef Pam Green, Sheraton Atlantic City Convention Center Hotel

Chef Kelsey Jackson of Kelsey and Kim's and Kelsey's, Vagabond, Marsini's Kitchen, Chef Will Myers from Acosta Foods, Chef Demetrios Haronis, Tropicana Casino & Resort, Atlantic City, Ducktown Tavern, and others.
