DINNER IN A BAG

Parents skip meals so they can feed their children. This tough choice is an unfortunate reality for many families in need. In New Jersey, about 800,000 people struggle with hunger, including approximately 200,000 children. They live in every county, city, and town across the state. They are our neighbors, coworkers, family, and friends.

ABOUT THE COMMUNITY FOODBANK OF NEW JERSEY

The Community FoodBank of New Jersey (CFBNJ), a member of Feeding America®, has been delivering food, help and hope across the state for over 45 years. Last year, CFBNJ provided nutritious food for over 85 million meals through its network of more than 800 community partners including pantries, soup kitchens, emergency shelters, mobile pantries, and child and senior feeding programs throughout the 15 New Jersey counties it serves. For our hungry neighbors, CFBNJ is the powerful agent of change that fills the emptiness caused by hunger and provides resources that are essential to earning a sustainable living.
