

MES

Nombre:

A hand-drawn grid on lined paper. The word "probability" is written vertically on the left side of the grid. The grid consists of 10 columns and 10 rows. The lines are drawn in a light blue color. The paper has horizontal blue lines. The word "probability" is written in a dark blue, slightly slanted font. The grid is drawn with thin, hand-drawn lines. The overall appearance is that of a student's work on a math problem.
